

PERSONAL PREFERENCES

1. What environment do you prefer to work in? Outdoors, an office, retail?

2. How far are you willing to travel for work?

3. How do you plan to get to work?

4. What are your top five employment interests?

5. How many hours would you prefer to work (full-time, part-time)? What shifts? What days of the week?

6. How much money do you want to make? How much are you willing to make?

7. How much responsibility would you prefer?

Keep these preferences in mind during your job search as they are directly related to your future job satisfaction. It may be necessary to compromise but be sure to clarify the preferences you are willing to compromise and those that you value the most.
